WHAT CRITICS ARE SAYING ABOUT DALE GONYEA...

"DALE GONYEA is the best piano-based satirist in the world."
Pasadena Weekly

"DALE GONYEA, a classically trained pianist turned comic, is a natural. Moving, funny, robot-sharp and lyrical...his energy and rhythm never stop from the moment he enters as he transports the audience into Gonyeaville!"
San Francisco Chronicle

"DALE GONYEA is very, very funny...sort of a cross between Tom Lehrer and Victor Borge. He is a master at delivery with an easy I'm-just-a-regular-guy stage presence that is instantly sympathetic and likeable."
LA Weekly

WHAT AUDIENCES ARE SAYING ABOUT DALE GONYEA...

"The program he presented in Cut Bank was one of the most entertaining concerts I have heard and I've been attending since 1946! It is great to hear a program that has no off-color jokes as well. I'm so glad I attended!"
Helen Schucette (Cut Bank, Montana)

"...exciting, a new breath of air, talented, self-confident, and a born entertainer. We are delighted that we had him for one of our concerts this season."
Jean Cavanaugh (Great Bend, Kansas)

"The audience needed the intermission as much as he did...we were exhausted from laughing!"
Harry Fredericks (Klamath Falls, Oregon)
